

UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON SCHOOL OF MEDICINE

STUDENT MISTREATMENT POLICY

The University of Washington School of Medicine is committed to assuring a safe and supportive learning environment that reflects the institution's values: excellence, respect, integrity, compassion, altruism, and accountability in all endeavors. Diversity of ideas, perspectives and experiences are integral to our mission. All individuals in our UWSOM community are responsible for creating a welcoming and respectful environment where every person is valued and honored. Mistreatment of students by the faculty, staff and peers at UWSOM is prohibited. This mistreatment includes incidents of humiliation; harassment or discrimination based on gender identity, sexual orientation, age; and the use of grading or other forms of assessment in a punitive manner. Expectations of teachers and learners are described more fully in the Policy on Professional Conduct.
