

Request to Restrict Disclosure of Healthcare Items or Services to Health Plans When Patients Self Pay Out of Pocket

I request that UW Medicine not disclose healthcare items or services to my health plan because I am self-paying for the item(s) or service(s) listed below, for the specific date(s) listed below.

I understand that:

- I must pay the full estimated amount for these services in advance of the visit. The estimated amount may not include all actual fees due, and I am also responsible for paying the full remaining balance of actual fees for services rendered. If I do not pay in full, including any remaining balance, UW Medicine is not required to honor this request.
- This restriction only applies to the item(s) or service(s) listed below. If there are any other healthcare items or services, such as pharmacy, imaging, or lab/pathology, it is my responsibility to request restrictions for them.
