

UW Medicine

Mission

UW Medicine's mission is to improve the health of the public. We advance this mission through our work in patient care, medical education and research.

UW Medicine

- Airlift Northwest
- Harborview Medical Center
- UW Medical Center
- UW Neighborhood Clinics
- UW Physicians
- UW School of Medicine
- Valley Medical Center

Shared ownership and governance

- Children's University Medical Group
- Seattle Cancer Care Alliance

Faculty recognition

- Nobel Prize in Physiology or Medicine: 5 laureates
- Canada Gairdner Foundation Awards: 13 recipients
- Howard Hughes Medical Institute: 10 investigators
- Lasker Foundation Awards: 6 recipients
- National Academy of Medicine: 34 elected members
- National Academy of Sciences: 34 elected members
- National Academy of Engineering: 6 elected members

Patient care

- UW Medicine is the most comprehensive integrated health system in the Puget Sound region.
- UW Medicine's health system includes three hospitals, the region's only Level I adult and pediatric trauma and burn center, and more than 300 outpatient sites of care.

Learn more

UW Medicine Fact Book:
uwmedicine.org/factbook

The Huddle: Go-to site for employees huddle.uwmedicine.org

Right as Rain: Consumer health with a Pacific Northwest touch
rightasrain.uwmedicine.org

Education

- UW School of Medicine trains students in Washington, Wyoming, Alaska, Montana and Idaho (WWAMI region).
- UW School of Medicine is ranked No. 1 in the nation for primary care education by U.S. News & World Report.
- Graduate Medical Education has 114 accredited residency and clinical fellowship programs (Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education).
- WWAMI Family Medicine Residency Network trains more than 230 residents annually in 31 residency programs.

Research

- 32 departments in clinical and basic science
- The UW School of Medicine is second in the nation in NIH research grants with $1.3 billion (fiscal year 2020) according to U.S. News & World Report Best Medical School Rankings.
- The University of Washington is ranked No. 9 in the world in the field of medicine in the 2020 Performance Ranking of Scientific Papers for World Universities (published by National Taiwan University).

Leadership

Paul Ramsey, MD, CEO, UW Medicine and Dean of the School of Medicine

Lisa Brandenburg, President, UW Medicine Hospitals & Clinics

Jacqueline Cabe, Chief Financial Officer

Ruth Mahan, JD, Chief Business Officer

Timothy Dellit, MD, Chief Medical Officer

Don Theophilus, JD, Chief Advancement Officer

UW Medicine: uwmedicine.org

Accelerate: The Campaign for UW Medicine AccelerateMed.org

Newsroom: Connecting journalists to UW Medicine
newsroom.uw.edu

UW Medicine magazine: uwmedmagazine.org

FY 2020 STATISTICS

Employees: 27,902

Faculty: regular, 2,546;
clinical, 5,268;
affiliate, 500

Students and trainees:
4,954

Undergraduate students:
4,380

Hospital admissions:
59,251

Outpatient visits:
1.63 million

Births: 6,358

Revenue: $5.6 billion

Research grant awards:
More than $1 billion

Uncompensated care:
$760 million

